Annual Plan Priorities

P1	Increase student attendance through high-trust, high expectation relationships between school and whānau, underpinned by shared expectations for success.
P2	Strengthen learner engagement through a Pomare curriculum, grounded in our community's aspirations, and aligned to the NZ curriculum.
P3	Deliver high-quality teaching and learning through consistent, evidence-based practice.

Priority 1 - Increase student attendance through high-trust, high expectation relationships between school and whānau, underpinned by shared expectations for success.

Success is

80% of students at school at least 90% of the time. Parents encouraging regular attendance as they recognise its importance and their tamariki genuinely want to be at school. Teachers knowing their students’ interests, strengths and challenges, and are therefore able to support them to experience success through learning that is holistic, culturally responsive, relevant, engaging, differentiated and inclusive. Regular cultural celebrations and on-going opportunities for tuakana-teina in action further strengthen a positive culture within the school that encourages engagement and attendance, while PC4L (Positive Culture for Learning) and restorative practices help maintain a positive and supportive learning environment.

Whānau are well-informed about the new curriculum and teaching programmes, and feel included in the school’s decision-making processes.

A local curriculum is developed and in place to ensure teaching and learning links between our local identity and context, and the new NZ curriculum.

Collaboration with other local schools (ex-Kāhui Ako) continuing and further developed to increase shared understandings and support student transitions.

School participation in community service projects leads to increased collaboration with local organisations. Showcasing stories of former students, cultural celebrations with whānau, and termly mihi whakatau to welcome new students and their whānau, help build a strong, inclusive, connected school community.
